

A specific time frame to convert to digital should be defined and then followed. The Corpus Christi area is one of the largest areas in the USA that still does not have all the stations broadcasting in digital. It is my guess that the FCC has not applied any fine to the stations that have not begun to broadcast in digital yet.